MARCH 1995 CRTC PUBLIC HEARING SCHEDULE

OTTAWA/HULL – For the convenience of all interested parties, the CRTC today released the order of appearance for its March 1995 public hearing at which it will hear 84 presentations from comments received on the policy issues related to the information highway. This public process was instituted pursuant to Order in Council P.C. 1994-1689. Over 950 submissions have been received in response to the call for comments made on October 20, 1994. These submissions will be considered by the Commission and a report will be submitted to the Government later in the Spring of 1995.

The Commission is planning to hold the public hearing from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday to Friday. However, this is subject to change. Intervenors will be allowed a maximum of 20 minutes for their oral presentation, which will be followed by a question period by the CRTC panel and legal counsel. Given the length of the hearing and the large number of appearing parties, it will not be possible to change the order of appearance in the attached schedule except under extraordinary circumstances.
